

Royal Canadian Legion

Annual Remembrance Day Poster and Literary Contest

How the contest works

The branch starts the process in early July by getting the information packages together for the schools. Schools should have received their Remembrance Day Contest information by the end of September. Then the entries are dropped off at the branch just after Remembrance Day. The branch starts the judging process and the 1st Place winners move onto the next level.

- Branch 1st Place winner moves onto Zone level of the Contest
- Zone 1st Place winner moves onto District level of the Contest
- District 1st Place winner moves onto Provincial Level of the Contest
- Provincial 1st Place winner moves onto Dominion (National) Level of the Contest

Some stats from the 2010 Remembrance Day Poster and Literary Contest

- Zone Level – 10 branches and 1,700 entries
- District Level – 63 branches and around 4,500 entries
- Ontario Level – 422 branches and around 50,000 entries
- Dominion Level – 1527 branches and over 100,000 entries

